

Proposal for TV Program Segment

Program name: Wafusohonke (Televised nationwide on the TV Tokyo network)

Main characters in the show: Hisako Manda, Takahiro Azuma etc

Program description

“Wafusohonke” is a highly informative quiz program structured around the concept of “The good old days of Japan” and evokes the spirit of traditional Japan in the minds of today’s Japanese, who may not be too familiar with their own culture. With a popular line “Nippon te iina” (Japan is wonderful), the program comprises several segments that offer different contents under the theme “genuine Japanese culture.”

Proposed plan

In this segment titled “My First Japan” we will have visitors from other countries who have only been in Japan for a short time (less than half a year) go around to various tourist spots, Japanese restaurants, and other locations in Japan. We will ask for their impressions and questions about these cultural and traditional aspects of Japan that are overlooked by Japanese people or have become so commonplace they are no longer noticed. Through this project, we hope to rediscover Japan.
