We provide the Japanese Language Placement Test online to check the Japanese language level for those who will take Japanese language courses offered by Hitotsubashi University Japanese Language Education Program in the Spring-Summer of the 2024 academic year. Please confirm whether you need to take the Japanese Language Placement Test at Registration Steps. If your intended course shows　"Must take the Japanese Language Placement Test" on the chart, you must apply for the online placement test by the above deadline. There is no recourse for missing the application or the online placement test. Please note that even if you have never studied Japanese before, you are required to take the test.

●Application for Japanese Language Placement Test:

For the application, refer to the email about the Japanese Language Placement Test. (Application deadline, start and end times for the test are based on Japan time.)

The deadline is March 11, Mon 17:00 (JST).

　　　*Please be sure to meet the deadline. You will not be allowed to take the test after this timeframe has passed, so do not forget to take the test.

●Japanese Language Placement Test:

　March 14, Thu 13:00-21:00 (JST) Online

　　　*Tests last approximately 2 hours. You may take the test at any time during the timeframe listed above.

　　　* Completed applicants will receive a test manual by e-mail 1 or 2days before the test, so please read it carefully before taking the test.

　　　*Please be sure not to miss the test because you cannot take it after the test period. If you miss the test, you cannot take any Japanese language courses.

●Orientation for Japanese courses:

　End of March (JST) Face-to-Face

Be sure to attend the test and the orientation.
