

We provide the Japanese Language Placement Test to check the Japanese language level for those who wish to take Japanese language courses offered by Hitotsubashi University Japanese Language Education Program in the Autumn-Winter of the 2024 academic year. Please confirm whether you need to take the Japanese Language Placement Test at Registration Steps. If your intended course shows "Must take the Japanese Language Placement Test" on the chart, you must apply for the placement test by the deadline below. Do not miss the application deadline or you will not be able to take the placement test. Please note that even if you have never studied Japanese before, you are required to take the test.

●Application for Japanese Language Placement Test:

For the application, please refer to the email about the Japanese Language Placement Test. (The application deadline and start time for the test are all based on Japanese Standard Time.)

The deadline is August 26, Mon 17:00 (JST).

Please be sure to meet the deadline. You will not be allowed to take the test after this timeframe has passed, so do not forget to apply for the test.
