At SOAS, we view the world through a different lens. Our expertise in the study of Africa, Asia and the Middle East shapes our understanding to tackle the complex and global challenges of our time.

Join a welcoming, diverse, and close-knit community in central London, where people from over 130 countries come together to exchange ideas, challenge dominant narratives and drive meaningful change. Our wide range of modules equip students with the knowledge and skills to confront the world's most pressing challenges — from climate justice and migration to decolonisation and development — through rigorous, interdisciplinary study grounded in regional expertise.

If you want to expand your horizons and develop a deeper understanding of the world, be part of SOAS: the world's university.

SOAS modules contain elements of interdisciplinarity and interculturality and aim to present perspectives from the Global South and beyond, thus challenging students to decolonise their academic standpoint. You will be able to design your own unique programme of study, with the freedom to focus on a particular region or concentrate on a specific discipline. You are also able to choose modules from any of our academic departments, for a total of 4 modules per semester.

Living in London

London is officially the best student city in the world – and SOAS's campus in Central London is right in the centre of it all.

SOAS has a single campus surrounded by green spaces, cafés, bars and restaurants, bookstores, museums and arts venues – with the British Museum, British Library, Regents's Park and the West End all within walking distance.

SOAS houses a National Research Library, a world-renowned resource containing over 1.5 million items in more than 400 languages. As a SOAS student, you will also have access to University of London libraries (LSE, UCL, Senate House).

The SOAS Gallery runs exhibitions and events throughout the year.

On campus, you will find facilities for your need: whether it is learning lounge and study spaces, café and cafeteria for food, multi-faith chaplaincy and prayer room, or the newly refurbished Students' Union common room and bar, and most important of all: The warm atmosphere our students tell us makes SOAS feel like a home away from home.

At SOAS, you will be part of a diverse, engaging community in a welcoming and supportive environment to make your SOAS experience fulfilling.

Our Students' Union (SU) champions your interest and creates a vibrant social and support network. From hosting exciting events to offering advice and representation, the SU plays a central role in campus life and all Study Abroad and Exchange students are automatically a member.

The Study Abroad team organises regular events and runs a Buddy Programme which matches incoming students with SOAS students returning from their Year Abroad. We offer guidance for you throughout your journey at SOAS, from your application to issuing your transcript.

SOAS's Accommodation Office assists you in finding accommodation with our network of accommodation providers. You are welcome to use all our services and facilities. Our Student Advice and Wellbeing Team can provide you with:

- Immigration advice
- Mental health and wellbeing services
- Disabilities and neurodiversity support.

The Careers Team has a range of services to help students explore career opportunities within the global economy and a multicultural world.
